- Server hosting is included for a period of 5 years as per the quotation.
- Renewal charges after the included period will be borne by the client.

4. Content Responsibility

The client shall provide all required content, images, logos, documents, and information necessary for project completion. Delays in content submission may result in project delivery delays.

5. Support & Maintenance

- Complimentary technical support will be provided for 365 days = 1 years from the date of project delivery.
- Any support, maintenance, or feature enhancements requested after the support period may be chargeable.

7. Change Requests

Any change request after project approval or development commencement may impact project cost and delivery timeline and shall be estimated separately.

8. Project Delivery

The project will be delivered after successful completion of development, testing, and receipt of full payment.

9. Source Code Ownership

The complete source code and project credentials shall be handed over to the client only after full payment clearance.

10. Cancellation Policy

If the project is cancelled after development has started, the advance payment shall be non-refundable, and completed work shall be billed proportionately.

11. Confidentiality

Both parties agree to maintain confidentiality regarding project information, business processes, and sensitive data shared during the course of the project.

12. Acceptance

Approval of this quotation and payment of the advance amount shall be considered acceptance of all terms and conditions stated herein.
